Disease and Epidemiology

1. Death
2. Pioneer of aseptic surgery
3. Publication of the CDC
4. Describes a carrier without signs and symptoms of a disease
5. Given credit for demonstrating the etiology of a disease
6. An example of a nonliving reservoir only if it is contaminated
7. Objects involved in indirect contact transmission
8. Conducted first documented epidemiological study
9. An example of a mechanical vector
10. An example of a biological vector
11. An example of an emerging infectious disease
12. An example of a reemerging infectious disease
13. Another term for a HAI
14. Involved in airborne transmission
15. A site where a pathogen can reside and remain infectious until it enters a new host
16. A type of transmission where there is a single source of infection
17. A state of being diseased
18. There are always a certain number of cases in the population
19. One of the best known asymptomatic carriers
20. An example of an emerging disease that is linked to birth defects
Disease and Epidemiology